

U.S. Federal Courts by the Numbers

Former Speaker of the House John Boehner:

"The legislative process, the political process in Washington is at a standstill and will be regardless of who wins . . . because more and more issues because they can't be dealt with legislatively are going to end up in the court system . . . And so you're going to see more and more issues in our society end up in the court system and eventually end up in the Supreme Court and that's where the real action is going to be."
