

FRAUD & WHISTLE BLOWER POLICY

Southeastern Legal Foundation (SLF) is committed to the highest possible standards of ethical, moral, and legal conduct. Consistent with this commitment, this policy aims to provide avenues for employees to raise concerns about suspected misconduct, dishonesty, and fraud and to provide reassurance they will be protected from reprisals or victimization for whistle-blowing reported in good faith.

PROCEDURE

Reporting

Employees and any other person who has a concern relating to suspected misconduct, dishonesty or fraud may make a report. SLF wants to hear of possible problems in these areas. If any person knows of or suspects misconduct, dishonesty or fraud, the Executive Director shall be contacted. If the alleged wrongdoing concerns the Executive Director, then the members of the Executive Committee, which includes the Chairman, Secretary and Treasurer of the Board, shall be notified instead. If the Executive Director or other officer of the organization receives information about misconduct, dishonesty or fraud, they shall inform the Board which shall determine the procedure for investigating all credible allegations. The privacy and reputation of individuals involved will be respected. There will be no punishment or other retaliation for the reporting of conduct under this policy communicated in good faith.

Investigating the Concern

Following the receipt of any complaints submitted, the matter shall be investigated and corrective and disciplinary actions taken where appropriate. The Board may utilize employees and/or outside legal, accounting or other advisors to investigate complaints regarding financial reporting, accounting, internal accounting controls, auditing matters, or any other form of misconduct, dishonesty, or fraud. In investigating, reasonable efforts shall be made to protect the confidentiality and anonymity of the complainant.

Further Information

The contact between the complainant and the body investigating the concern will depend on the issue and the clarity of information provided. Further information may be sought from the complainant.

Report to Complainant

The complainant will be given the opportunity to receive follow-up on their concern within two weeks:

- Acknowledging that the concern was received;
- Indicating how the matter will be dealt with;
- Giving an estimate of the time it will take for a final response;

Informing the complainant whether initial inquiries have been made; and
Notifying the complainant whether further investigations will follow, and if not, why.

Information

Subject to legal constraints the complainant will receive information about the outcome of any investigations.

Document Retention

SLF shall retain as a part of its records any such complaints or concerns for a period of at least seven years.

SAFEGUARDS

No Retaliation

No director, officer, or employee or other person who in good faith reports a violation shall suffer harassment, retaliation or an adverse employment consequence. An employee who retaliates against someone who has reported a violation in good faith is subject to discipline up to and including termination of employment. This policy should encourage and enable employees and others to raise concerns within the organization prior to seeking resolution outside the organization. No employee shall be adversely affected because they refuse to carry out a directive which constitutes corporate fraud, violates state or federal law, or contradicts SLF's written policy.

Confidentiality

Violations or suspected violations may be submitted confidentially by the complainant or may be submitted anonymously. Reports of violations or suspected violations will be kept confidential to the extent possible, consistent with the need to investigate. Every effort will be made to protect the complainant's identity.

Anonymous Allegations

Employees are encouraged to put their names to allegations because follow-up questions and investigation may not be possible unless the source of the information is identified.

Concerns expressed anonymously will be investigated, but consideration will be given to:

- The seriousness of the issue raised;
- The credibility of the concern; and
- The likelihood of confirming the allegation from attributable sources.

Acting in Good Faith

Anyone filing a complaint must act in good faith and have reasonable grounds for believing the information disclosed indicates misconduct, dishonesty, or fraud. Any allegations that prove not to be substantiated and which prove to have been made maliciously or knowingly to be false will be viewed as a serious disciplinary offense.

DEFINITION OF TERMS

For this policy, the definition of misconduct, dishonesty, and fraud includes but is not limited to:

- Theft or other misappropriation of SLF's assets
- Misstatements or other irregularities in SLF's records
- Incorrect financial reporting
- Misuse of SLF's resources
- Illegal activities
- Immoral or unethical activities in the name of SLF
- Forgery or alteration of documents
- Any other form of misconduct, fraud or dishonesty that injures SLF

Southeastern Legal Foundation reserves the right to modify or amend this policy as it may deem necessary.
